

Aug. 6-7

10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Admission Free

UTokyoNY Office

The University of Tokyo NY Office

145 West 57th Street 21st Floor
New York 10019

Convergence of Peace Activities

Connecting and Integrating by Technologies

Digital Contents of War Damage

Hiroshima Archive, Nagasaki Archive and Satellite Images Map of Ukraine / Colorized photographs of the mushroom clouds / Archives of War Photographs joint research project with the Mainichi Newspapers and Kyoto University in Japan / VR content of the moments immediately following the atomic bombings.

Introduction of Peace Activities

Digital map of the Japanese Consumers' Cooperative Union's peace activities / The activities of the Heiwa Peace and Reconciliation Foundation of NY / A venue to further enhance the exchange of peace activities between the U.S. and Japan.

Lecture of the A-bomb experience

(limited number of participants)
A-bomb lectures by members of the Japan Confederation of A- and H-Bomb Sufferers Organizations (to be streamed online) / Opportunities to talk with event participants.

Registration:

Registration required via the website

The number of participants for the A-bomb survivor lecture (in English) and exchange program (in Japanese) on August 6 from 11:30 a.m. will be limited. If there are too many applicants, a drawing will be held. Online streaming will also be available.

Inquiries: Hidenori Watanave Laboratory, UTokyo
hwtnv@iii.u-tokyo.ac.jp

Website + Registration

<https://labo.wtnv.jp/2022/07/convergence2022en.html>

Organized by:

The University of Tokyo

Project management by:

Hidenori Watanave Laboratory, Interfaculty Initiative in Information Studies, The University of Tokyo

Kenya Tamura, Masao Oi, Naomi Mikami, Nei Shu, Asaki Fujino and Hidenori Watanave

With the cooperation of:

Japan Confederation of A- and H-Bomb Sufferers Organizations / Japanese Consumers' Co-operative Union / Heiwa Peace and Reconciliation Foundation of New York / Nagasaki Foundation For the Promotion of Peace / The Mainichi Newspapers / United Nations International School / Association for Regional Development and Global Human Resources Support / Taku Nishimae / VisionPort / EBUTLAB, Inc. / Eukarya, Inc.

wtnv.studio
network media art

UTokyoNY
The University of Tokyo New York Office